Request for Leave Form

Forms should be submitted to the school office and will be given to the relevant school Head to be considered. No arrangements and/or travel bookings should be made until the request has been approved by the Head of School. The ISE must conform to Dutch law (Article 13a & 14 of the Compulsory Education Law of 1969) with regard to student attendance. The only exemptions for students to be absent from school are illness, a religious obligation and due to exceptional circumstances. A summary of regulations can be found in the school guide.
